

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Student Organizations Code of Conduct is the Institute's policy regarding discipline of student Organizations. The primary purpose of this Code is to provide a quality educational environment for Students and student Organizations and to notify student Organizations of the Institute's expectations regarding behavior. The Code should be read broadly and is not designed to define misconduct in exhaustive terms.

Student Organizations may be charged with violations of the Student Conduct Code and the Conduct Code for Student Organizations. Disciplinary action directed towards student Organizations shall be afforded according to procedures published and are available on the Dean of Students webpage: <http://www.deanofstudents.gatech.edu/policy>.

*The entire student organization code of conduct can be found at http://www.deanofstudents.gatech.edu/integrity/policies/student_orgn_conduct.html.

UNSPORTSPERSON-LIKE CONDUCT

All Georgia Tech sport clubs are expected to show the highest level of sportspersonship when participating in any event. This includes practices, team events, games, tournament, and any other activity that involves a sport club. The club and its members not only represent themselves, but they represent the university, the CRC, and the sport club program therefore the emphasis on sportspersonship is highly

HAZING

Hazing is prohibited. "Hazing" means any act committed by a person, whether individually or in concert with others, against a student in connection with pledging, being initiated into, affiliating with, holding office in, or maintaining membership in any organization that is affiliated with an educational institution; and that is intended, or should reasonably be expected, to have the effect of humiliating, intimidating, or demeaning the student or endangering the mental or physical health of a student. Hazing also includes soliciting, directing, aiding, or otherwise participating actively or passively in such acts. Hazing occurs regardless of the consent or willingness of a person to participate in the activity. Hazing may occur on or off campus.

DISCIPLINARY GUIDELINES

A student enrolling in the Georgia Institute of Technology assumes an obligation to conduct himself or herself in a manner compatible with the Institute's function as an educational institution. Actions considered inimical to the Institute and subject to discipline fall into the categories of academic and nonacademic misconduct. The Student Code of Conduct clearly defines these expectations, and outlines the adjudication process. The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct is to educate all members of the Georgia Tech Community and to maintain an environment conducive to academic excellence.
